

pathways to success

Build a healthy relationship with your money in four weeks

what:

Pathways to Success is an opportunity for women to become empowered to take responsibility for their own economic destiny.

Pathways is a four-week program beginning Tuesday, March 10, 2009. For 3 weeks, meet with other women wanting to take a pathway to economic success.

The 4th week of the program is a personalized, one-on-one visit between you and a finance advisor from the National Foundation of Debt Management (NDFM).
